

DEAR G.R.A.C.E.,

Love Notes from the Community Lay Director - September 2011

I think we can all agree that the Emmaus weekend is a "game changing", "life changing" or "mountain top" experience. We have all been exposed to the love of God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit during our walk and walks we have worked. I know that we all understand the purpose of the Emmaus experience is to provide leadership training for the local churches. In addition, I'm pretty sure that we all know that Jesus told us what was important- Love God and our neighbors. I know you are with me so far. I'm sure you all know who our neighbors are - everyone.

It occurred to me that if we are all in basic agreement about these issues, perhaps we could dig deeper. Which political party did Jesus support? That's right, none. The local parties of his time were the Jewish-Sadducees and the Pharisees. I'm pretty sure that he wasn't close with either one of them. My question is - If we are to love our neighbors, what do we do if they are Democrats, Republicans, Libertarians or whatever and we are not? It appears that in the current climate in this country we proceed to vilify anybody who doesn't believe exactly what we believe. Perhaps we of the Emmaus community could work on keeping in mind the commissions that Jesus gave us. Love is one of them and making disciples is the other. We might even consider Steven Covey's suggestion to "Seek to Understand Before You Seek to be Understood"

Some of you know the Rev. Zan Holmes, the pastor who introduces all of the sessions of Disciple Study 1. My wife and I recently had the opportunity to hear Rev. Holmes preach at a revival at a Methodist Church in Fairfield, Texas. His scripture for the evening was Mark 5: 1-20, the story of Jesus casting out demons from a man possessed. The demons identified themselves as "Legion" and were allowed to go into a nearby herd of pigs. To say that the demon possessed man did not have his stuff together is an understatement. However, I suspect he is a bit like us. He was thrashing around in his chains attacking anyone who came near. However, with the help of Jesus Christ, he changed and got himself together. We can do the same thing. With the help of Jesus Christ, we can bring civility to the conversations about issues in this country. We can value and love people even if they don't agree with everything that we say or do. Love and Jesus Christ do conquer all - If we let them.

FROM OUR Spiritual Director

In Chapter Nine of the book of Romans, the apostle Paul, after celebrating the liberating love of Jesus Christ, turns his heart to the very people who had spurned him and the gospel hope. These are his words, "I am speaking the truth in Christ - I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit- I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are my people..."

Every time I read those words, I am struck about the passion Paul had for his people. Wow. I would even be cut off if it meant that these folk came to know Christ. How many of us can say and mean that? Every time I read those words, I get jealous to have that kind of passion for 'my people' in my life. So I am praying that God would enliven my passion for all people. I am praying it for our Churches. I am praying it for the walk leaders. I am praying for all the Pilgrims. I am praying it for a people called Emmaus. May the passion of our hearts be that God's people- our people- will know the living Lord. I hope you get to join in celebrating the walks. May God's Name be ever praised...Amen.

SAME GRACE, DIFFERENT VENUE

A special note to my Emmaus family, just wanted to let you all know about the exciting direction God is leading me. I am presently on a Kairos Outside North Texas Team, the weekend will be very much like an Emmaus Weekend except all guests have one thing in common they have a loved one that is incarcerated. (Weekend lasts from Friday evening until Sunday afternoon) They are all female guests but they do not need to be a Christian. Even though all team members must be a Christian and have all been on a 3 day Christian movement (Emmaus, Cursillo, Tres Dias, Kairos, Outside Kairos). What I have gleaned from working many Kairos weekends is that there is a great need to have a Kairos Outside here in East Texas. First and foremost, I am asking my prayer warriors to keep this up and coming Kairos Outside Weekend in vour prayers (the weekend is happening the same weekend as Women's Emmaus weekend) that should be easy to remember. Second, I would like all to be open to the leading of the Holy Spirit to see if you would like to be involved in a ministry such as this, many opportunities:

- 1. Startup committee see where it goes from here.(need men and women)
- 2. Be on the 1st Kairos Outside East Texas team (need women and men(men work as servants in the background)
- 3. If you do know of any ladies which would be interested in attending such a weekend they or yourself could get in touch with me.

After speaking with several ladies who are experiencing such a devastating life style, most feel alone and ashamed of what they are going through and very often share little of this with anyone. So to get them in touch and find support with others in their similar situation is what this is all about. We are there to just LISTEN, LISTEN, LOVE, LOVE. Bring the love of Christ to each one of them. Feel free to contact me through email:

GATHERING NEWS

The Canton group organized a delightful gathering for August at FUMC Canton. David and Dee Calhoun were quite meticulous in planning and preparing all activities (Dee was really the one who did the preparing... David and all the rest of the Canton bunch were the cheerleaders). The music presented by the church praise band was truly incredible.

The next gathering is being hosted by the good folks in Troup (Troup is the "one horse town" 19 miles South East of Tyler, on Hwy 110 where pastor Mike Cline hangs his hat). This gathering is being organized by Diana Frachiseur et.al. and is set for September 17, 2011 at 5 pm. A covered dish dinner is at 5:30 and worship at 6:30 pm (or whenever Pastor Mike calls us to action) See you in Troup.
